Finding Books and Journals Held at Other Libraries

The Library of Rush University ♦ (312) 942-5952 ♦ Lib_Ref@rush.edu ♦ www.lib.rush.edu/library

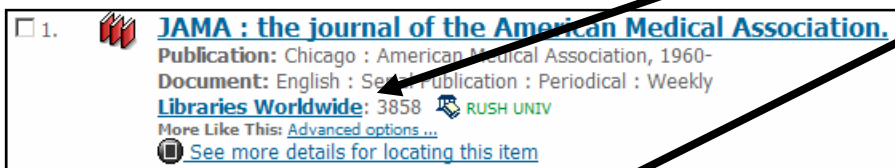

WorldCAT shows the holdings of libraries throughout the world. It is part of the First Search service. You can use it to see if the UIC Health Sciences Library has a journal not held in our library. The link to WorldCAT is on our home page under DATABASES. Access is restricted to on campus or via proxy account.

1. From the Library's home page, select the First Search link located under DATABASES.
2. When First Search opens, select WorldCat.
3. Select Advanced Search.

4. Type in your search terms. You can use the pull-down menu to change the search fields from keyword to title, author, subject, etc.
5. Click on Serial Publications to limit your results to just journals.
6. Click on SEARCH (upper left) to begin searching.
7. Your search results appear. Click on the item's title to see the full bibliographic record. Click on LIBRARIES WORLDWIDE to see what libraries in the world have the book or journal you are looking for.

8. The list of libraries appears with Illinois first.
- Please note that not every library on the list allows the public entry into its institution. Please check with the Reference Staff at the Rush Library if you are not sure.
